LADY ALEXANDRA

OVERVIEW

LADY ALEXANDRA has been a very consistent filly, with three wins from six starts and a Stakes placing. She is headed to the Fasig-Tipton July Horses of Racing Age Sale in top form and not to be underappreciated is her MASSIVE pedigree page that would be a great addition to any broodmare band. She has competed on the toughest circuits in New York and Florida battling against several high end three-year-old turf fillies. Showing her class in October of her two-year-old year she was forced to debut on a muddy off track when her Maiden was rained off the turf and gutted out a win in tough conditions. Being by More Than Ready and out of a turf favored female family she was only allowed to try the turf in her third lifetime start, getting a Stakes placing in the $100,000 Ginger Brew Stakes. Since that effort she has found the winners circle two more times in top Allowance races and looks to move back into Stakes company for new owners. Elite Sales is being well supported by longtime clients Sheep Pond and Newport Stables being the first year in business and because of that this filly is being offered in our first consignment.

She earned an 82 Beyer, 9 Thoro-Graph, and 12 ³/₄ Ragozin in her WIN on June 22nd.

CURRENT TRAINER - CHAD BROWN

Chad Brown in his young career has become the top trainer in the country earning the Eclipse Award for leading trainer in 2016 topping the country with 23.1 million in earnings. In 2017 he captured the G1 Preakness Stakes with Cloud Computing. He selected LADY ALEXANDRA himself at the two-year-old sales loving her overall physical and pedigree page. He has done a great job campaigning her so far and would love for the opportunity to keep her in his barn for the new owner.

RACE CAREER OVERVIEW

JUNE 22ND – N2X ALLOWANCE

WON BY ½ LENGTH – ▶ WATCH RACE REPLAY \(SHE IS #2\)

In against older fillies and mares including 4yo Alywow Stakes Winner Miss Katie Mae (IRE) in a top level $80,000 Allowance at Belmont Park LADY ALEXANDRA handled the field with ease winning by a ½ length easily. She sat a nice trip under Javier Castellano in the pocket and saving ground. She slipped up the rail and showed a nice turn of foot down the lane. Miss Katie Mae came running late but LADY ALEXANDRA had it won, digging in gamely to make it a comfortable win. To beat older fillies and mares early in her 3yo season was an impressive feat and shows she is in top form.

MAY 20TH – SOARING SOFTLY STAKES

6TH BEATEN 2 ½ LENGTHS – ▶ WATCH RACE REPLAY \(SHE IS #6\)

In a near course record effort by this nice group of three-year-old fillies LADY ALEXANDRA had a very frustrating trip finishing 6th, beaten 2 ½ lengths. Since she was coming off 17 days rest this race was a lot to ask of her. LADY ALEXANDRA looked to be sitting a great trip in the 7 furlong turf event, hugging the rail as the 5/2 favorite. Turning for home the announcer said, “LADY ALEXANDRA is going to need some racing room.” As Stakes winner/G3 Placed Morticia and Stakes Winner/4th in G1 Breeders Cup Juv Turf Lull battled it out down the lane LADY ALEXANDRA finally found some room but at this point had begun flattening out and finished 6th beaten only 2 ½ lengths. Stakes winning Bellavais, daughter of Tapit finished third. The race couldn’t have been hotter with 4th place finisher Con Te Partiro coming back to win the Sandrigham Stakes at Royal Ascot in her next start! Still, the short rest clearly influenced her performance.

MAY 3RD – N1X ALLOWANCE

OVERCAME TROUBLE IN A STRONG EFFORT – ▶ WATCH RACE REPLAY \(SHE IS #1A\)

In a first level Allowance race for 3 and up fillies and mares LADY ALEXANDRA went off the favorite in a competitive New York quality Allowance field. She sat a nice trip and made a three wide run down the center of the turf course showing a nice turn of foot and won with ease by 1 ½ lengths. It was visually one of her more impressive performances in only her second lifetime turf race and first race as a three-year-old.

POSSIBLE RACING SCHEDULE

This filly has done good work going one turn on the turf. However, Chad would be looking to stretch her out in her next effort and a two turn mile or 1 1/16th should be well within the More Than Ready filly's reach. In fact, her Stakes placing came in a two turn one mile event. Below is a summer Stakes schedule that will fit her:

DATE	RACETRACK	GRADE	RACE	PURSE	DISTANCE	SURFACE
July 21st	Saratoga	G3	Lake George	$150,000	1 1/16M	Turf

She has been very consistent on her surface of choice with a 78, 82, 79, 82 pattern. The 82 Beyer will be competitive in Listed and G3 Stakes for the remainder of her 3 year old year and if she moves forward she can step into the G2 level.

THORO-GRAPH

Three 9's as a 3 year old is very solid and shows her consistency. She ran a very strong first out number (11) on a surface she does not prefer. The (17) can be thrown out, as it was over a very sloppy track. With the pairing of her figs as of late, the sheet experts would say she will likely move forward next out.

RAGOZIN

She has run two 11 1/2 's and one 12 3/4 where she saved all the ground and had a dream trip. These numbers consistently put her in Graded Stakes company.

PEDIGREE

We could write a few pages on the depth of this pedigree page. However, in short she comes from a top family in the stud book. Aside from being by top sire MORE THAN READY her female family is stacked! Second dam FLAGBIRD was an outstanding racemare that won races across the globe including the G3 Prix de la Grotte in France, winner in 2 starts in Ireland, high-weight at 9 ½ to 11 furlongs in G1 in Italy, and 2nd in the G1 Gamely in America. She produced ANASHEED (2nd in G3 Arlington), MARHOOB (Stakes winner in Dubai), DUBAI BELLE (2nd in Prix Coronation). The list goes on and on. Most recently G1 Winner DICKINSON appears under the 2nd dam beating Champion LADY ELI at Keeneland as well as G3 winner NEWFANGLED and G2 Winner FORTIFY.

If that wasn't enough the 3rd dam is G2 Delaware Oaks winner UP THE FLAGPOLE and is in the family of MINESHAFT (G1 Winner and sire), TOMISUE'S DELIGHT (G1W), PROSPECTOR'S DELITE (G1W), and several other Graded Stakes winners.

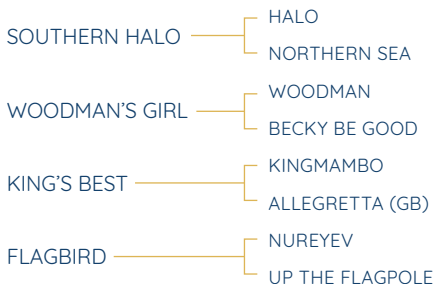

A mixture of distance and speed, dirt and turf, and class and quality through and through. Her $300,000 price tag as a two-year-old was partly to do with her huge page as well as a good physical and breeze.
