WEISBORD & CROW'S “ELiTE” Concept

While simply an idea in January of 2017, ELiTE Race Sales, the brainchild of Weisbord, came to fruition at the Fasig Tipton July Sale. In July, ELiTE Sales led in Gross, Average and Clearance Rate selling 4 of the top 5 horses. Since its inception, an incredible 76% of starts by horses sold by ELiTE have competed in Stakes races.

ELiTE Sales aggressively markets their consignments via “Buyer’s Passports” which showcase extensive PPs, Thoro-graphs and Ragozins, social media and daily advertisements in the TDN and Bloodhorse, raising the bar and setting a new standard amongst consignors.

HAPPY MESA STAMPED BY BSW MANAGEMENT

From Start to Finish

Privately purchased on behalf of Great Point Stables, Highclere America and Zoom & Fish Enterprises as a 2yo, HAPPY MESA was stamped by BSW Management from start to finish, running on strong into 2017 to take the Hilltop Stakes on Preakness weekend.

She then joined 'ELiTE' at Fasig Tipton July in the inaugural draft of ELiTE Sales' consignments, leaving Fasig as the 3rd highest price horse sold in July for $525,000.

MONOMOY FINDS SUCCESS In First Year

Monomoy Stables found success in their first year after the acquisition of MY BOY JACK, bought by Keith Desormeaux, and MONOMOY GIRL, bought by Liz Crow.

After a close second in the Del Mar Juvenile Turf Stakes, MY BOY JACK clinched a victory in the Zuma Beach Stakes at Santa Anita placing him on the road to compete in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf.

MONOMOY GIRL earned Black Type in the Rags To Riches, winning by 6 ½ while running a full second faster than the colts in the Street Sense Stakes.

She was then G2 placed, beaten by a neck, in the Golden Rod Stakes in the second fastest running of the stake since Champion Rachel Alexandra.

Monomoy Girl is currently training at the Fair Grounds as she continues on the 2018 Kentucky Oaks trail.

Important to note Monomoy Girl @LCrow11 was over 1 full second faster than the colts in Street Sense Stakes while under wraps.

ALL ALBOARD!

Golconda Arrives at 'The Spa' with MARCH X PRESS

March X Press rolled into Saratoga with two impressive victories this summer. Liz Crow scouted the $90,000 KEE SEPT Book 3 find for Golconda Stables: first time owners and BSW Clients.

As the first and only horse in the Golconda stable, she broke her maiden in impressive fashion and continued her hot streak at the Spa to go on and win the Bolton Landing Stakes.

I do not get goosebumps watching 2-year-old races too often, but March X Press's run at Saratoga just now was something remarkable.

Bobby Shoemaker @2turnturfaces · 3h

March X Press again looks like dead money turning for home and again explodes late. Todd has a very good turfer on his hands.

The filly went on to finish 4th in the G1 Natalma Stakes and is on track to make a start in the Melody of Colors at Gulfstream Park on February 24, 2018.

STONE TURNS TO GOLD At Tattersalls December

MODERNSTONE, purchased by Brad Weisbord on behalf of long-time client Bobby Flay at the Keeneland November sale in 2015, brought a monstrous £1,000,000 at Tattersalls December.

In foal to the world's leading sire–Galileo–this strong race mare with a serious European pedigree proved to be a wise purchase for Flay, turning a $350,000 investment into a $1.4 million reward in 2017.

CROW DEFIES STATS and Looks to Big 2018

2017 yielded big results for Liz Crow at public auction. She defied the statistics with an exciting 20% of her purchases ending their 2017 seasons as Stakes Winners.

Heading to 2018, all eyes are on two precocious fillies; March X Press, a 2 year old stakes winner at Saratoga, and Monomoy Girl, an early favorite for the 2018 Kentucky Oaks.

Remembering FANCIFUL ANGEL (IRE)

While 2017 was full of many successes, BSW clients Michael Dubb, Head of Plains and Madaket Stables lost the talented, multiple G1 placed Fanciful Angel in a tragic stall-accident. With two close seconds against the best turf company the US has to offer, the 5 year old son of Dark Angel was in the midst of the best season of his career, earning a spot on the "Watchmaker" Watch for much of the year, and will be missed by many.
