

April 22, 2018

Media Release – West Point Purchases Interest in My Boy Jack

West Point Thoroughbreds has purchased an interest in Kentucky Derby (G1) contender My Boy Jack.

Trained by Keith Desormeaux, the son of Creative Cause will run under Sol Kumin's Monomoy Stables, Kirk Godby and Matt Bryan's Don't Tell My Wife Stables, and West Point Thoroughbreds with regular pilot Kent Desormeaux carrying the 🏠 Monomoy silks.

Recent winner of the Lexington Stakes (G3) at Keeneland, My Boy Jack has 52 Kentucky Derby qualifying points. Beaten just three lengths in the G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf, the colt hasn't been off the board in four starts as a 3-year-old. He was third in the Sham Stakes (G3) in January at Santa Anita, won the Southwest Stakes (G3) in February at Oaklawn, and then narrowly missed in the Louisiana Derby (G1) at Fair Grounds before his score in the Lexington.

"I've always liked this horse and admire his versatility," said West Point's Terry Finley. "There's great karma surrounding this colt and his connections, and he's come out swinging this year despite several tough trips. We're grateful for the opportunity to join an awesome ownership group and thrilled to provide a dedicated group of our partners the chance to once again experience the magic of the Derby dream."

Bred by Brereton C. Jones in Kentucky, My Boy Jack is out of the Mineshaft mare Gold N Shaft. Consigned to the 2016 Keeneland September yearling sale by Legacy Bloodstock, agent, Don't Tell My Wife Stable purchased the colt for $20,000.

West Point Thoroughbreds purchased an interest in Always Dreaming before the colt won both the Florida Derby (G1) and Kentucky Derby (G1) in 2017. This year, the partnership group purchased an interest in Kentucky Oaks (G1) contender Coach Rocks before her win the Gulfstream Park Oaks (G2). Monomoy Stables, in partnership with The Elkstone Group LLC, Mike Dubb and Bethlehem Stables LLC, also has likely Kentucky Oaks (G1) favorite Monomoy Girl.

Acquisitions | Management | Sales
838 E. High St, Suite 253
Lexington, KY 40502