

June 25, 2018

For more information, contact Kevin McInerney
732-682-0917 or kevin@bloomracing.com

Madaket Stables purchases minority interest in Midnight Bisou

Madaket Stables LLC (Sol Kumin) has purchased a minority interest in G1 winner Midnight Bisou (Midnight Lute). She will run under the ownership of 🏡 Bloom Racing Stable, 🏠 Madaket Stables and Allen Racing LLC.

Her three-year-old campaign is already stamped with 3 Graded Stakes victories in the G1 Santa Anita Oaks, G2 Santa Ynez and G3 Santa Ysabel, while under the care of trainer Bill Spawr. Midnight Bisou also placed 3rd in the G1 Kentucky Oaks despite a troubled trip.

She will remain with trainer Steve Asmussen as she prepares for her East Coast campaign with immediate targets in the G2 Mother Goose at Belmont, followed by the G1 Alabama at Saratoga.

Industry veteran Jeffrey Bloom has built one of the most successful national racing syndicates and his keen eye expertly selected Midnight Bisou, now one of the top fillies in the country, as an $80,000 two-year-old in training.

“We are thrilled to partner up with Sol on this amazing filly,” Bloom said. “We have had great luck together in the past and look forward to enjoying this exciting ride with Sol and his team.”

Madaket Stables is run by Sol Kumin. Along with his other stables, he has obtained a record 36 stakes wins including 12 G1s, in the first half of 2018.

About Bloom Racing Stable

Bloom Racing Stable is a full service Racing Partnership Company that specializes in acquiring racing prospects through public auction and private acquisition as well as complimentary breeding and pinhook partnerships. Additional services include bloodstock consulting and management.

Acquisitions | Management | Sales

838 E. High St, Suite 253
Lexington, KY 40502